

About us

Florida Living is a network and marketing organization in the Netherlands for Florida real estate. Our group of experienced Florida Realtors® and Dutch real estate agents conduit to Dutch real estate buyers or investors looking to vacation or invest in Florida. Florida Living has partnered with a team of local specialists for advice on purchasing real estate in Florida. One of our Dutch speaking agents resides in Amsterdam and is licensed in Florida and member of Florida Realtors® as well. Our partners have extensive experience and expertise with many aspects of real estate and international business management. Judith Noordam Judith Noordam operates the back office of Florida Living in the Netherlands. She is director of the network and marketing operations. Judith was born in the Caribbean where she spent her childhood. Raised in the Netherlands she studied Clinical Chemistry and worked as a Clinical Research Associate in the Medical and Pharmaceutical industry. After operating as a Caribbean real estate agent she joined Florida Living. Judith knows Florida well from her childhood onwards. She is mainly in contact with Dutch clients and Florida Living's partner network in the Netherlands and in Florida. She speaks Dutch, English and Spanish. For further information click to see his personal profile at LinkedIn: Erik Noordam Erik Noordam is a licensed Realtor® in Florida and owner of Noordam Management B.V. He is associated with two well known real estate companies active in real estate brokerage, appraising, insurance and property management in the Netherlands and in Florida. As such he is member of Florida Realtors® (FAR), the Dutch Real Estate Brokers and Experts' Association (NVM) and FIABCI, the International Real Estate Federation. He is also an international member of the National Association of Realtors®. Daily he deals with national and foreign real estate investors with varying investment property portfolio's. After his study of Marketing at the HES Amsterdam with International Management as a major he studied Financial Control (post-graduate) and Commercial Property Management (post-graduate). He lived in the United States, Kenya, and Ecuador and travelled to more than 40 countries. He speaks Dutch, English, German and Spanish. For further information click to see his personal profile at LinkedIn:

Peter Leerdam Peter is a licensed Realtor® in Florida and vice president at EuroCapital Partnes in Orlando, Florida. ECP is an experienced national and international real estate investment, development, land management, and brokerage company and was founded in 1979 by Peter's father Mr A.C. Leerdam. Peter is a member of Florida Realtors® (FAR), and the National Association of Realtors®. He studied Business at Florida State University and operates as qualified broker and partner in Florida. Peter deal mainly with professional real estate investors. And yes, he likes to fish. For further information click to see his personal profile at LinkedIn: Florida Living Real Estate Services Florida Living can accomodate your investment in the right type of property and in the right location. Call us at 020-7173578 so we can guide you all the way through the process of acquiring real estate in Florida. Contact us for information on Florida real estate. Our knowledge and extensive network will be put to good use to find you a dream home or investment properties.